Please note that we will keep your personal information strictly confidential. It will not be revealed without your permission. FCC policy is that the FCC database, directories and membership lists are only for the use of FCC adoptive and prospective adoptive families. They may not be used for commercial, research or any other purposes (for-profit or not-for-profit) without the written consent of the FCC-NT Board of Directors.

FCC-NT is an all-volunteer organization. The activities and programs offered are only possible because of the active participation of our members. Our group works on a volunteer basis, therefore the availability of activities and events is subject to the willingness of our members to contribute to and share the responsibility for their organization. Your participation is what keeps this group going for our children and families, so please consider volunteering.

I/we are interested in volunteering in the following area(s):
